This endeavor has been in the works for sometime since the need for innovative business strategies has been identified as a growing need in business. As many already know there has been a consistent and rapid increase in Latino business ownership.

Latino's, despite being entrepreneurial and hard working have struggled through achieving exponential prosperity for lack adequate of foresight business strategies. This is something that Dr. Nilda Perez identified from her research as the leading need in Latino business ownership. She has taken on the responsibility as her moral obligation to address this need.

She founded Foresight Strategies Group & Latino Academy for Business a consulting, coaching and training firm on foresight. She is also the author of 'The Leadership Shift: The Strategic Positioning of Latino Business Leaders.

There has been a considerable demand for more information a better understanding on the strategies that Dr. Nilda Perez shares. The launch of the radiobroadcast's intention is to interactively reveal business trends, innovation, creativity, growth. It is about redirecting mindsets, expanding viewpoints, and jolts your creativity. It will also to showcase many of the amazing thought leaders that are challenging the status quo and changing the landscape of today's business.

Roger von Oech stated, "It's easy to come up with new ideas; the hard part is letting go of what worked for you two years ago, but will soon be out of date." One thing, which this show intends to do is rattle the status quo and help you discover a new way of thinking about business.

Much of Dr. Nilda's following are well-established business owners who are looking to become thought leaders in their industry by implementing innovative approaches. She has listened to her following who have requested more information and this radiobroadcast will make that need accessible.
